

Eagles Manor
Jim at the Piano
Sunday 21 February 2021

Hymn Reflections by John Carter

Promised Land

Brethren, We Have Met to Worship

Amazing Grace

Simple Gifts

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

I Will Arise and Go to Jesus

Wondrous Love

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

These I Lay Down

Come, Share the Lord

I Am the Bread of Life

Jim at the Piano – Sunday 21 February 2021

Now the Silence
Come, Let Us Eat
One Bread, One Body
I Come with Joy
Let Us Talents and Tongues Employ

© 1997 2004 Hope Publishing Co.

JOHN CARTER (b. 1930) is Director of Music at University Baptist Church, Columbus, OH. He was born in Nashville, TN and received his B.M. from Trinity University in San Antonio and an M.M. from Peabody College in Nashville. John is a well-known composer with several hundred choral compositions to his credit as well as several musicals, an opera, and a dozen collections for keyboard and organ. He and his wife, Mary Kay Beall, often collaborate as writers and in Music Ministry. They have been featured on the cover of Creator magazine. He is a recognized clinician and choral conductor and is particularly noted for his versatile writing style and his long-standing creative productivity. John has three hymn credits in Hope's new hymnal WORSHIP & REJOICE (2001) and the catalog shows 145 separate titles listed under his name.