Cindy Berry was born in Houston, Texas, and attended Houston Baptist University. She is a composer/arranger of sacred choral anthems for all voicings, for children's anthems, and piano collections for several major publishers. She frequently serves as choral and keyboard clinician and leads "composer weekends" and various workshops throughout the country. Her goal as a musician is to always present her music as an offering of worship to God, and to help lead others in worshipping and praising God too. She has been the recipient of ASCAP Special Awards for many years.*
