

Eagles Manor
Jim at the Piano
Sunday 9 May 2021

The Beatles - Jazz Arrangements
by Brent Edstrom

All You Need Is Love

Blackbird

Can't Buy Me Love

Day Tripper

Don't Let Me Down

From Me To You

Golden Slumbers

Good Night

Got To Get You Into My Life

Here Comes The Sun

Hey Jude

I Will

Let It Be

If I Fell

The Long and Winding Road

Jim at the Piano – Sunday 9 May 2021

Norwegian Wood

Ob-La-Di, Ob-La-Da

Something

Penny Lane

Ticket To Ride

2013 Hal Leonard Publishing

Brent Edstrom has published extensively including over 100 note-for-note transcriptions of the music of Art Tatum, Bill Evans, Kenny Barron, Oscar Peterson and others as well as 53 volumes for Hal Leonard Corporation's Jazz Piano Series. Recent publications include Recording On a Budget and Arduino for Musicians: A Complete Guide to Arduino and Teensy Microcontrollers, distributed internationally by Oxford University Press, and Musicianship In the Digital Age, distributed by Thomson.

Edstrom received a Bachelor of Music degree in classical piano performance from Washington State University and a Master of Music degree in jazz studies and contemporary media from the Eastman School of Music. An active composer, Edstrom's compositions and arrangements have been performed by numerous symphonies including the Dallas Symphony, Kentucky Symphony, New Haven Symphony, Spokane Symphony, and Orchestra Seattle. His compositions include works for orchestra, chamber ensembles, and jazz ensemble, and he recently finished a song cycle based on the writings of Willa Cather that premiered in Bordeaux, France last July. He was the Washington State Music Teachers Commissioned Composer of the Year for 2016-2017. Edstrom teaches composition, theory, and jazz studies at Whitworth University in Spokane, WA.