Henry Nicola Mancini, born Enrico Nicola Mancini, Italian, April 16, 1924-June 14, 1994 was an American composer, conductor, arranger, pianist and flautist. Often cited as one of the greatest composers in the history of film, he won four Academy Awards, a Golden Globe, and twenty Grammy Awards, plus a posthumous Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award in 1995.

His works include the theme and soundtrack for the Peter Gunn television series as well as the music for The Pink Panther film series ("The Pink Panther Theme") and "Moon River" from Breakfast at Tiffany's. The Music from Peter Gunn won the inaugural Grammy Award for Album of the Year. Mancini enjoyed a long collaboration composing film scores for the film director Blake Edwards. Mancini also scored a No. 1 hit single during the rock era on the Hot 100: his arrangement and recording of the "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet" spent two weeks at the top, starting with the week ending June 28, 1969.

Residing in Moorhead, Minnesota, Melody Bober is actively involved in musical activities, including conducting ensembles and teaching music at an elementary school, teaching private piano lessons, and playing at church. In addition, she has accompanied many singers and instrumentalists in public performances and has been a featured soloist at numerous regional events. Ms. Bober graduated summa cum laude from the University of Illinois (Champagne-Urbana), studying music education and piano performance. She later earned her master's degree in piano performance at Moorhead State University in Minnesota.
