O Thou in Whose Presence
Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken
I Must Tell Jesus
Take the World, but Give Me Jesus
Blessed Assurance
Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen
Glory to His Name
Amen!

Victor Labenske is professor of music at Point Loma Nazarene University in San Diego, California, where he teaches courses in piano, music history, and music composition. A summa cum laude graduate of PLNU, he earned his master's degree in piano performance at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, Conservatory of Music where he studied with Joanne Baker. He also earned the Doctor of Musical Arts in piano performance at the University of Southern California where he studied with Stewart Gordon.

He has been honored with such distinctions as playing in the opening ceremonies of the 1984 Olympic Games and being named an Academic All-American Scholar. His compositional output includes numerous sacred piano collections, educational piano music, and collections for voice and for violin.

Dr. Labenske remains active as a concert artist, as both a soloist and a collaborative performer and enjoys presenting sacred concerts with his wife, Judith Spaité Labenske. The Labenskés have two children, Karlin and Kristofer.
