Gathering Music

Welcome

O Come, All Ye Faithful ELW #283 (v. 1-2)

1. O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, born the king of angels:
REFRAIN: O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!
2. The highest, most holy, light of light eternal,
Born of a virgin, a mortal he comes;
Son of the Father now in flesh appearing! (refrain)

Luke 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

O Come, All Ye Faithful ELW #283 (v. 3-4)

3. Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God... in... the... highest: (refrain)
4. Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be... glory giv'n!
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing: (refrain)

Luke 2:8-18 - In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them.

Silent Night ELW #281 (v. 1-3)

1. Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child. Holy infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.
2. Silent night, holy night! Shepherd quake at the sight:
glories stream from heaven afar, heav’nly hosts sing, alleluia!
Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ the Savior is born!
3. Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love’s pure light radiant beams from your holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at your birth ... Jesus, Lord, at your birth.

Luke 2:19

But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart.

Prayers

This night the eternal Word of God is born in us. We pray for Christ’s light of life to take flesh in the church, the creation, and all people of God. (silence)

We bring to the manger our longing for the visible unity of the church of Jesus Christ, that undivided, it more fully proclaim the one whose birth brings good news of glad tidings to all people. Lord in your mercy... hear our prayer.

We bring to the manger hope for the well-being of creation, that every valley be exalted and every rough place be made plain in order that every living thing may flourish. Lord...

We bring to the manger concern for those who have no place to lay their heads this night, and for those who dwell in the shadow of loneliness, despair, illness, or death. We come begging that the child for whom there was no room will open the doors of our hearts to the needs of our neighbors and ourselves. Lord...

We bring to the manger all people who, like the holy family, gather with children in the splendor of this most holy night, that the gift of faith be lavished on another generation. Lord...

We bring to the manger the hopes and dreams of all the years, that with Mary and Joseph, angels and archangels, saints and martyrs, loved ones of every time and every place, our prayers and praises join in a common song uniting heaven and earth in a single peace. Lord...

Into your outstretched arms, O God, we commend ourselves and all the longings of our hearts, trusting in your love for us, through Jesus Christ, the light and life of the world. C: Amen.

The Lord be with you. C: And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. C: We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. In the wonder and mystery of the Word made flesh you have opened the eyes of faith to a new and radiant vision of your glory, that beholding the God made visible, we may be drawn to love the God whom we cannot see. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

C: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

Joy to the World! ELW #267 (v. 1-4)

1. Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her king;
Let ev'ry heart prepare him room and heav'n and nature sing,
And heav'n and nature sing, and heav'n and heav'n and nature sing.

While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found, far as,

The glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love,
